

New Publications.

POEMS BY HENRY PETERSON.

1 VOL. 12MO. CLOTH.
TINTED PAPER, GILT TOP.

PRICE $1.25.

From The American Literary Gazette and Publishers' Circular.

This volume appears without preliminary announcement, and without any accompanying efforts to catch applause. It modestly places itself upon its own intrinsic merits; and after the reader shall have perused it, he will agree with us that although it comes unheralded, it deserves to be heartily greeted. The author is a member of the editorial profession, "who," as he truly states, "makes so many repetitions for others and so few for themselves." We trust the other part of this saying is not destined to be verified in the case of Mr. Peterson, for many a poetic reputation, of temporary popularity and brilliancy, has been made upon far less merit than is here exhibited. In going through the volume we are everywhere struck with the well-sustained excellence of its contents, and we not infrequently meet with specimens of the most effective power. In fact, the entire collection is marked with far more real ability than is disclosed in much of the poetry which is now-a-days so obstreperously and clamorously lauded. In its simplicity and naturalness, in the utter absence of all straining after mere verbal effect, and in the quiet, equable, and unobtrusive vein of true poetic sentiment which pervades it, the volume must be regarded as indicative of far more than ordinary ability.

"The Poet's Address to America" is full of vigor of expression and loftiness of conception: "Only a Woman's Heart" is extremely touching; the sonnets are skillfully constructed; "Laurel Hill" has a local interest to Philadelphia; "Cora" is flowing and melodious; and so we might go on specifying one piece after another until the entire contents were exhausted. We heartily recommend the volume as a specimen of genuine, natural, unaffected poetry.

From The Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.

The poems are all good; the metrical flow, in all cases, being musical and graceful, while the play of fancy is liberal and elegant. Most of the poems are short or occasional verses, such as are suitable for the columns of a periodical. The exception is in the poem of "The Rivals," a well-sustained story in octosyllabic verse, which scarcely needed the apologetic note prefixed to it by its author. Mr. Peterson's volume deserves to have many readers.

From Arthur's Home Magazine.

There is a test of true poetry which most of the pieces in this volume will bear; you may read them a second time with an increasing interest. The author's fancy is chastened by reflection, and he strives to make song the eloquence of truth. We speak advisedly when we say that Mr. Peterson has given us a volume of poems with better and more enduring stuff in it than is to be found in two-thirds of the new books of poetry that have appeared in the last five years.

J. B. LIPPINCOTT & Co., Publishers,
No. 715 and 717 MARKET STREET.SOLDIERS AND READERS OF WAR
NEWS will find an excellent Handbook in WESTERN HISTORY.

ARMY AND NAVY POCKET DICTIONARY.

A new edition is now ready in which the vocabulary of Military and Naval Terms has been thoroughly revised and considerably enlarged by Capt. E. C. BOYNTON of West Point.

A comprehensive three volume on fine paper, with pictorial illustrations and colored frontispieces, weighing but four ounces, and embracing a complete Pocket Dictionary of our language, a Dictionary of Military and Naval Terms, and numerous tables of weights and measures, Rates of Pay, Banks, with Illustrations, Money, Weights, and Measures of the principal commercial nations. Price $1.50.

Price $1.50. Postage extra. Price $1.75. Bookseller's
Gift Edition $1.25. Sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price. Sold by Mason & Miller, No. 5 Spruce-st.MASON BROTHERS, Publishers,
No. 7 Montgomery, New York.

THE GOLDEN TREASURY SERIES.

THE PILGRIM'S PROGRESS FROM THIS WORLD TO THAT WHICH IS TO COME. By JOHN BUNYAN. An elegant edition. With illustrations by Stothard, and vignette title, engraved by March. 16mo. cloth. Price $1.75.

THE BEST BOOK.—The Choicest Anecdotes and Sayings Illustrating English Wit and Humor. Selected and Arranged by MARK LEWIS. With a Vignette by Charles Keene.

A New and Improved Edition of the great work, which will be available in America. THE TOQUEVILLE'S DEMOCRACY IN AMERICA. This edition is reprinted with Notes, the Translation Revised and in great part Rewritten, and the Author's Name added to the Recent Partitions. Now first published by FRANCIS F. DAVIS, Allentown, and by Philip May in Harvard University. Elegantly Printed on Linen Paper, at the University Press. Bound in Maroon Vellum. 2 vols. Post. Price $1.50.

Price $1.50. Postage extra. Price $1.75. Bookseller's
Gift Edition $1.25. Postage extra. Price $1.50.

THE TRADE SUPPLIED at wholesale prices.

125 Single copies of Books, Pamphlets, Lithographs, Prints and Photographs mailed to my address on receipt of price.

JOHN FLANAGAN, Wholesale Newsletter, Nos. 21 and 23 Ann-st.

DRESS GOODS AT RETAIL.

STRANG & ADRIANCE,
No. 355 BROADWAY.

will open on MONDAY, at RETAIL,

the LARGEST ASSORTMENT OF SEASONABLE DRESS GOODS at popular prices.A. T. STEWART & Co.,
Broadway and Tenth-st.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

[CORRECTED TWICE A WEEK]

THE WOMAN IN BLACK. On the 21st.....$1.50

BARRADA'S HISTORY. A NOVEL.....$1.50

SEVEN STORIES WITH BASEMENT AND ATTIC. On the 21st.....$1.50

PATRIOTISM AND OTHER PAPERS.....$1.50

NINETEEN BEAUTIFUL YEARS; OR SKETCHES AT A GIRL'S LIFE.....$1.50

THE TRADE SUPPLIED at wholesale prices.

125 Single copies of Books, Pamphlets, Lithographs, Prints and Photographs mailed to my address on receipt of price.

JOHN FLANAGAN,
Wholesale Newsletter, Nos. 21 and 23 Ann-st.

OLD BILL WOODWORTH! NOW READY,

and for sale everywhere, one of the most readable stories of the War, comprising No. VII. of the "American Tales" series, viz:

OLD BILL WOODWORTH, SCOUT OF THE CUMBERLAND.

BY THE AUTHOR OF "BOB BRANT."

In this stirring story the author resumes the character of Old Bill Woodworth, the noted Scout, and produces a narrative of such mingled excitement, beauty, and pathos, as will not fail to render it one of the most notable stories of the year.

Published in large octavo, double-column pages, with beautifully illuminated cover. Sold by all Newsdealers, or sent POST PAID on receipt of price, FIFTEEN CENTS.

AMERICAN NEWS COMPANY, Publishing Agents.

BOOKS BOUGHT.

In any quantity from a Single Volume to an Entire Library.

JOHN PYNE, BOOKSELLER, No. 109 Nassau-st.

FOR SALE—A FILE OF THE N. Y. DAILY TRIBUNE FOR 1861, '62, and '63. Address C. W. E., Box 1,267 P. O.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE.

THE NEW-YORK SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE is published every TUESDAY and FRIDAY.

CONTENTS OF NO. 1890 [MAY 17]. LEADING ARTICLES—The Campaign; Halving It; Summer on Castile; President Lincoln's Rule; A Spanish Outrage in Peru; The Nation's Triumph; J. D. on Exchange; The Anti-slavery; The Progress of Invention; Time Called; The Sanitary Commission in Virginia and Georgia; Editorial Paragraphs.

WAR NEWS SUMMARY—Military Division of the Mississippi; Gen. Sherman's Operations; Gen. Grant's Operations; Sherman and the Atlanta Campaign; Chattanooga; Department of the Gulf; Naval; Southern News; Miscellaneous.

GENERAL NEWS SUMMARY—New York, The Amherst; Domestic Miscellany; Political.

FOREIGN NEWS SUMMARY—Europe, West Indies.

GEOGRAPHICAL OPERATIONS OF OUR CAVELRY Below Petersburg; General Smash of the Weldon Railroad; Capture of Rebel Detachments; Capture of a South Carolina Legion.

Correspondence of THE N. Y. TRIBUNE.

FROM THE EXPEDITION—Cooperative Naval Movement; Official Report; Admiral Porter.

THE EXPEDITION SOUTHWEST—Correspondence of The N. Y. Tribune.

FROM UTAH—Correspondence of The N. Y. Tribune.

A LETTER OF INSTRUCTIONS FROM GEN. BUTLER.

OCTOBER—Abraham Geiger, M. D., the Hon. Charles B. Calvert; Gleason Meyerbeer.

FROM WASHINGTON—Special Dispatches to the N. Y. Tribune.

THE EIGHTH CONGRESS—FIRST SESSION—Proceedings in the Senate and House of Representatives.

THE GREAT BATTLES—War Department Official Dispatches.

FROM GEORGIA—Correspondence of The N. Y. Tribune.

FROM BELGIUM—Correspondence of The N. Y. Tribune.

FROM THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC—Correspondence of The N. Y. Tribune.

SHIRKMAN'S GREAT CAVALRY RAID.

FROM FRANKFURT—Correspondence of The N. Y. Tribune.

FROM CHATTANOOGA—Correspondence of The N. Y. Tribune.

FROM CONSTANTINOPLE—Correspondence of The N. Y. Tribune.

FROM THE EXTREME FRONT—Correspondence of The N. Y. Tribune.

FROM THE UNION—Correspondence of The N. Y. Tribune.

THE GOVERNMENT FARMS AND FREEDOM IN VIRGINIA; Correspondence of The N. Y. Tribune.

IMPORTANT FROM PERU—Siege of the Chincha Islands by the Spanish Squadron; Attempted Capture of the Peruvian Fleet.

PERSONAL POLITICAL.

WAR ITEMS.

THE IRISH REVOLUTION.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

MARRIAGES AND DEATHS.

COMMERCIAL—Full Reports of the Stock, Money, Cotton, Gold and Cattle Markets, specially Reported for The N. Y. Tribune.

TERMS—One Copy for one year, $3. Two Copies, $5. Three, $7.50. Five Copies, one year, $12. Ten Copies, $25. For a Club of Twenty, we send an Extra Copy.

Address THE TRIBUNE, New York.

New Publications.

READY THURSDAY MORNING AT THE BOOKSTORES.

MR. RAYMOND'S HISTORY OF THE ADMINISTRATION

OF PRESIDENT LINCOLN,

INCLUDING HIS SPEECHES, ADDRESSES, LETTERS, MESSAGES, AND PROCLAMATIONS, WITH A PRELIMINARY SKETCH OF HIS LIFE.

A. T. STEWART & CO.

In all qualities, weights and widths.

Broadway and Chambers-st.

CLOTH SACQUES AND CIRCULARS,

At $9—Value $12.

BLACK SILK SACQUES, BASQUES, and CIRCULARS,

At $12—Value $15.

DECIDED BARGAINS.

A. T. STEWART & CO., Broadway, cor. 10th-st.

THE MOST REMARKABLE STATE PAPERS OF MODERN TIMES.

Epam Horace Greeley's article in yesterday's Tribune.

The poems are all good; the metrical flow, in all cases, being musical and graceful, while the play of fancy is liberal and elegant.

Most of the poems are short or occasional verses, such as are suitable for the columns of a periodical.

The exception is in the poem of "The Rivals," a well-sustained story in octosyllabic verse, which scarcely needed the apologetic note prefixed to it by its author.

Mr. Peterson's volume deserves to have many readers.

From Arthur's Home Magazine.

There is a test of true poetry which most of the pieces in this volume will bear; you may read them a second time with an increasing interest.

The author's fancy is chastened by reflection, and he strives to make song the eloquence of truth.

We speak advisedly when we say that Mr. Peterson has given us a volume of poems with better and more enduring stuff in it than is to be found in two-thirds of the new books of poetry that have appeared in the last five years.

Price $1.50. Postage extra. Price $1.75.

The poems are all good; the metrical flow, in all cases, being musical and graceful, while the play of fancy is liberal and elegant.

Most of the poems are short or occasional verses, such as are suitable for the columns of a periodical.

The exception is in the poem of "The Rivals," a well-sustained story in octosyllabic verse, which scarcely needed the apologetic note prefixed to it by its author.

Mr. Peterson's volume deserves to have many readers.

From Arthur's Home Magazine.

There is a test of true poetry which most of the pieces in this volume will bear; you may read them a second time with an increasing interest.

The author's fancy is chastened by reflection, and he strives to make song the eloquence of truth.

We speak advisedly when we say that Mr. Peterson has given us a volume of poems with better and more enduring stuff in it than is to be found in two-thirds of the new books of poetry that have appeared in the last five years.

Price $1.50. Postage extra. Price $1.75.

The poems are all good; the metrical flow, in all cases, being musical and graceful, while the play of fancy is liberal and elegant.

Most of the poems are short or occasional verses, such as are suitable for the columns of a periodical.

The exception is in the poem of "The Rivals," a well-sustained story in octosyllabic verse, which scarcely needed the apologetic note prefixed to it by its author.

Mr. Peterson's volume deserves to have many readers.

From Arthur's Home Magazine.

There is a test of true poetry which most of the pieces in this volume will bear; you may read them a second time with an increasing interest.

The author's fancy is chastened by reflection, and he strives to make song the eloquence of truth.

We speak advisedly when we say that Mr. Peterson has given us a volume of poems with better and more enduring stuff in it than is to be found in two-thirds of the new books of poetry that have appeared in the last five years.

Price $1.50. Postage extra. Price $1.75.

The poems are all good; the metrical flow, in all cases, being musical and graceful, while the play of fancy is liberal and elegant.

Most of the poems are short or occasional verses, such as are suitable for the columns of a periodical.

The exception is in the poem of "The Rivals," a well-sustained story in octosyllabic verse, which scarcely needed the apologetic note prefixed to it by its author.

Mr. Peterson's volume deserves to have many readers.

From Arthur's Home Magazine.

There is a test of true poetry which most of the pieces in this volume will bear; you may read them a second time with an increasing interest.

The author's fancy is chastened by reflection, and he strives to make song the eloquence of truth.

We speak advisedly when we say that Mr. Peterson has given us a volume of poems with better and more enduring stuff in it than is to be found in two-thirds of the new books of poetry that have appeared in the last five years.

Price $1.50. Postage extra. Price $1.75.

The poems are all good; the metrical flow, in all cases, being musical and graceful, while the play of fancy is liberal and elegant.

Most of the poems are short or occasional verses, such as are suitable for the columns of a periodical.

The exception is in the poem of "The Rivals," a well-sustained story in octosyllabic verse, which scarcely needed the apologetic note prefixed to it by its author.

Mr. Peterson's volume deserves to have many readers.

From Arthur's Home Magazine.

There is a test of true poetry which most of the pieces in this volume will bear; you may read them a second time with an increasing interest.

The author's fancy is chastened by reflection, and he strives to make song the eloquence of truth.